APPOINTMENT OF A ADMINISTRATIVE TRIBUNAL IN THE U.T. OF DAMAN AND DIU
DAHYA BHAI V. PATEL

Will the Minister of LAW AND JUSTICE be pleased to state:

(a) whether the proposal for the appointment of a Administrative Tribunal in the U.T. of Daman & Diu has been pending with the Union Law Ministry for a long time;

(b) if so, the reasons therefor;

(c) the action taken by the Government to expedite the appointment with a view to obviate problem being faced by the local public on this account; and

(d) the time by which this appointment is likely to be made?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE FOR COAL, MINES, LAW AND JUSTICE (SHRI RAVI SHANKAR PRASAD)

(a) to (d): The Government has not received any proposal nor any such proposal is contemplated for appointment of Administrative Tribunal in the U.T. of Daman & Diu. The Benches of the Central Administrative Tribunal are set up keeping in view the number of cases pertaining to a particular region. Otherwise, one of the Benches of the Tribunal will have jurisdiction to decide the cases. The cases of Central Government employees of U.T. of Daman and Diu, come within the jurisdiction of the Mumbai Bench of the Central Administrative Tribunal.
